ENTERTAINMENT
AT DE FUNIAK
SPRINGSGiven by Ladies of Town Improvement Ass'n. Was Largely Attended.

Special to The Journal.

De Funiak Springs, Nov. 6.—The ladies of the Town Improvement Association gave a very fine entertainment Thursday evening in Floumroy Hall. The ladies who had it in charge deserve great praise for their untiring efforts in making it such a success. So many excellent musical selections, recitations, tableaux, etc., were given that it is hard to determine which were superior.

Miss Thompson, Miss Beville, Miss Campbell and Miss Myrtle Bowers each sang a beautiful solo, Miss Irene McSwain and Master Rosby Brown recited, and the illustrated songs were exceptionally fine.

The tableau "The Popular Tenor" was a beautiful picture, and especially appropriate at this time as more tenor singers are badly needed in some of the churches of the town.

The ladies double trio deserves special mention as it was the chief feature of the entertainment. The comic duet by Mrs. John F. Watson and Mr. Corden was also very effective, as was the song by Mr. Harley Cawthon, which was illustrated.

The hall was full to overflowing long before the hour for opening and the sum realized was greater than had been expected.

Mrs. Clutter of Pensacola who is visiting her brother, Mr. O. J. Brown, added materially to the trio with her beautifully trained voice, as did Mrs. D. L. McSwain of Arcadia, who is visiting her father, Dr. G. P. Henry.

The military company's drill under Captain Flournoy was the event of the day. They showed remarkable progress in the short time since their enlistment, but under the tutelage of such an able captain wonders have been accomplished. Mr. Pierce gave evidence of the best military training in the contest, and was awarded the gold medal. This parade was witnessed by the largest crowd that had assembled since the opening of the fair. A sham battle was fought on the shores of the lake in the evening, which was of great interest to hundreds of spectators.

The program of the entertainment was of the following:

Double Trio—"Flower Song"—Mesdames Cawthon, Clutter, Lowell, McSwain and Watson, and Miss Campbell.

Reading—"Music on the Rappahannock"—Miss Irene McSwain.

Tableau—"The Popular Tenor"—Miss Beville, Campbell, Edith and May Skiles, Dr. Hawley Cawthon.

Solo—"The Message of the Violet"—Miss Altha Thompson.

Duet—"A. B. C."—Mrs. Watson and Mr. Geo. F. Carden.

Tableau—"His Next Move"—Miss Edith Skiles and Dr. Hawley Cawthon.

Solo—"You're as Welcome as the Flowers in May"—Miss Myrtle Bowers.

Illustrated Song—"Visions of the Old Folks at Home"—Miss Campbell, Mrs. Cawthon and Mr. Geo. Carden.

Musical Tableau—"Good-bye Little Girl, Good-bye"—Miss May Skiles, Capt. W. W. Flournoy and Mr. Moss Flournoy.

Reading—"Rosby Brown."

THE ORIGINAL.
Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and Apothecary.

EARLY PAYMENTS

To My Patrons:
In the recent disastrous fire I was a heavy loser, nearly everything I had being a total loss. If those of my patrons whose accounts I was carrying will endeavor to make an early settlement, it will be sincerely appreciated and it will assist me materially in getting on my feet again.

WE'RE EXPECTING
YOU IN FOR A LOOK

Mr. Man:—You must be nearly pestered to death with the flaring newspaper ads, urging you to go to one place or another to spend your clothes money.

We want you, too, but are not going to shriek in your ear that we are the one and only.

All this ad's for is to let you know that we're after your trade.

You're too young to buy of the store that will do the best for you.

We want a chance to show you, and will leave the rest to you.

After you've been here, you'll be glad you came. Come see—that's the test!

To Our Friends,

Our friends and patrons can find us at No. 37 South Palafox street, still engaged in the Real Estate and Insurance business. Although greatly inconvenienced as a result of the big fire, we are temporarily installed at the above number, and can look after our patrons just the same. The big fire should be an example to every one, and should most certainly be a potent reason why every one should insure, or increase their insurance.
